

MARIST POLL

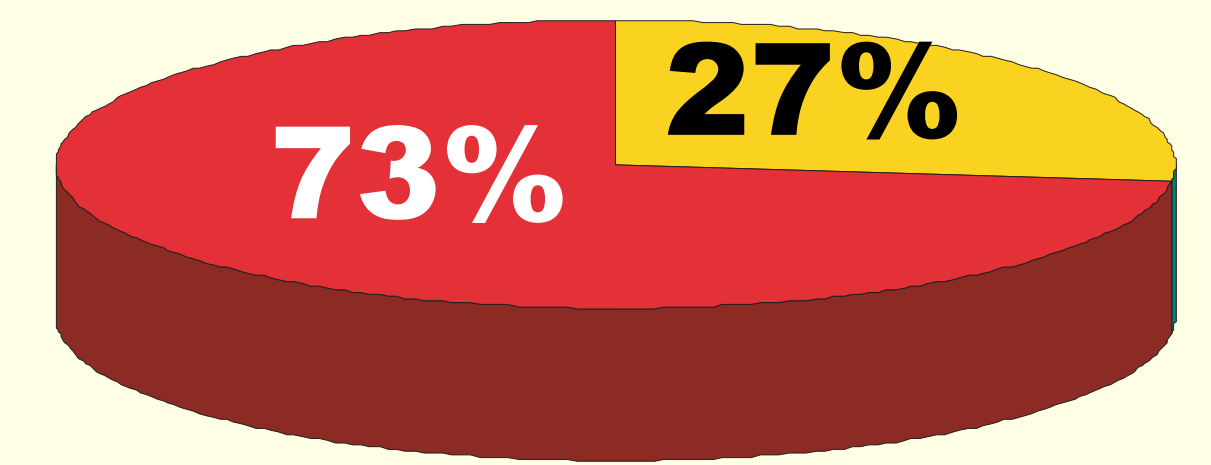

Indian Point Evacuation Plan — Key Findings

Shadow Evacuation

60% of residents living outside the planning zone but within a 50-mile radius of Indian Point would attempt to evacuate

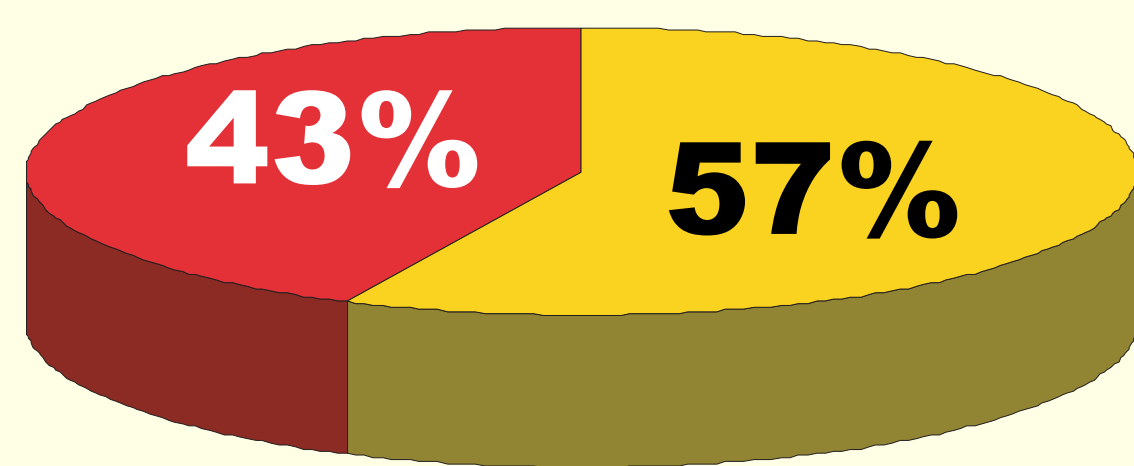

Poll confirms two major flaws in the Evacuation Plan

Parents rescue their children

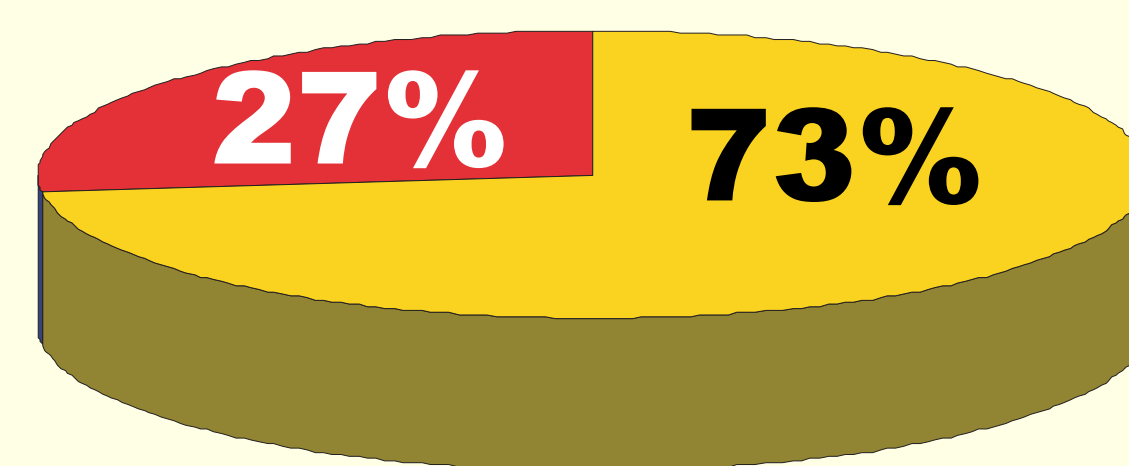

73% percent of parents within the 10-mile radius would attempt to pick up their children from school or child care

Most citizens unprepared

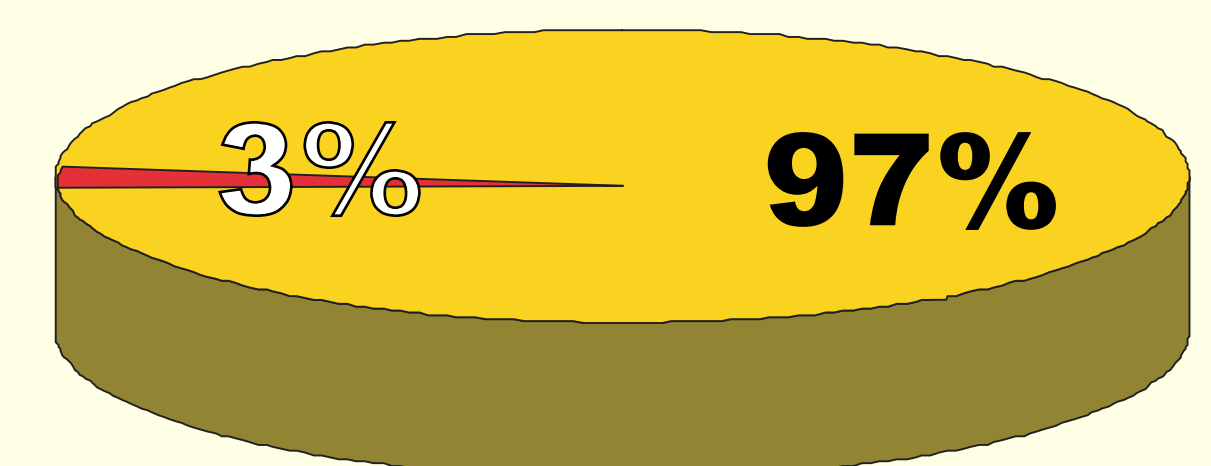

Citizens who have received copy of plan

43% of residents living within a 10-mile radius of Indian Point have received their copy of the evacuation plan

Citizens who are familiar with plan

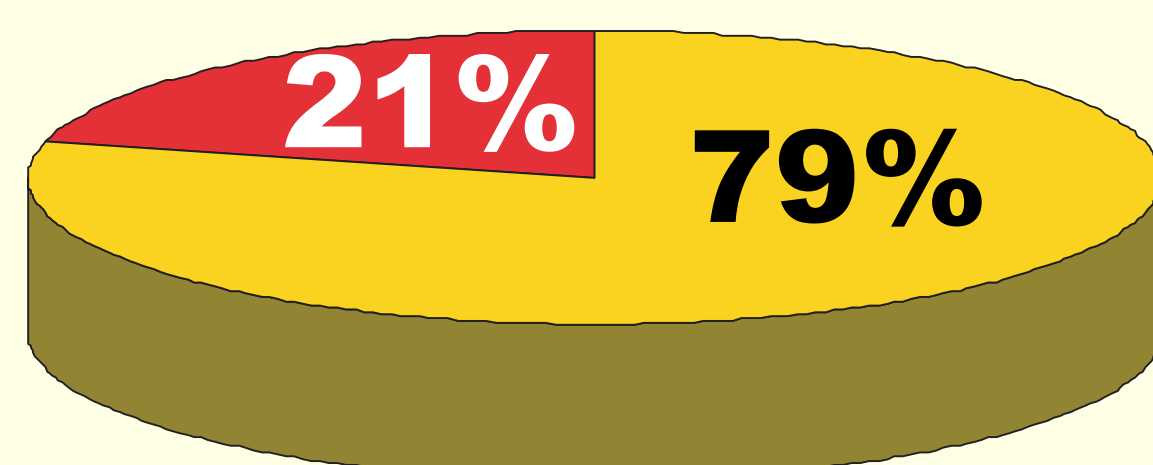

27% of residents living within the 10-mile radius feel familiar with what they are supposed to do in the event of a major accident

Citizens don't know where to go

Only 3% of residents living within the 10-mile radius could name a reception center

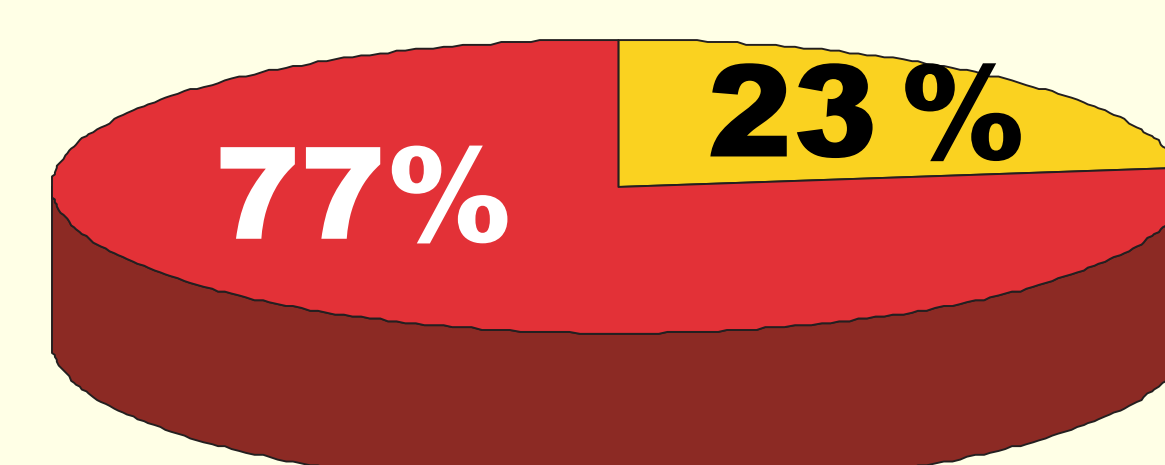

Little confidence in the plan's ability to save lives

Residents who feel the plan will work

21% of residents living within the 10-mile radius of Indian Point believe the existing evacuation plan is workable

Need to expand planning zone to a 50-mile radius

Majority want an Evacuation Plan

77% of residents living outside the 10-mile radius but within a 50-mile radius of Indian Point feel their community should have an evacuation plan